(The Tune)

Lord I thank you for the gift of life

Money fit no day right now the way we want am....but we still on d grind

We still on d grind

Down here right now

Omo is a jungle

Built for the tough

Built for the hopeful at heart

Man no fit give up

Girl I'd rather break up

Don't know if we'd make up I

Gotta Face my man

But she still come to me

She say she go even uphold me

Because to be a man no easy

I gotta face my challenges

I gotta face my challenges

Kus I'm a king in this jungle

I stay original

Till the day I diey

Im a happy maan

But She still come to me

Facing my challenges

100 bridges imma cross those bridges

In search for freedom

I gotta face my challenges

Kus I'm a king in this jungle

I stay original

Till I diey

Im a happy maan

I gotta face my challenges

Enemies dem try to bring me down

Thank God for his protection

Taming my demons

But she still come to me

She say she gonna even uphold me

Because to be a man no easy

I gotta face my challenges

She still come to me

Facing my challenges

100 bridges imma cross those bridges
In search for freedom

(Boy Chula)

Shoutout To my mum and everybody that also helped me
Life's a bitch but we gonna fuckin
Face it Old times I been grinding on the low like a gangster
Couldn't sleep but I gat no fuckin answer
Tell Valencia She ain't coming over
Bitch Game over Driving to a coma
Nobody Gon help cos everybody gat a case
I ain't giving up cos I gotta win the race

When I wake up in the morning
I be praying for the money
I be calling everybody they be coming for a party
So I'm down with my shawty I don't care about anybody
Everybody in lobby Everybody be doing funny huh!
I got some bills in my coat
Leader of the gang so everybody thinks I'm a G.o.a.t
And I'm dropping every reason for the flow
Niggas wanna diss but I'm sure this Niggas never really know

I gotta face my challenges
Till I diey

I gotta face my challenges
Enemies dem try to bring me down
Taming my demons

But she still come to me
She say she gonna even uphold me
I gotta face my challenges

She still come to me
Facing my challenges
