Hein Oliveira is an educator, circus artist and dancer, who focuses on multiplicity in artistic making, seeking to reconcile the practices of dance, theater and circus.

She began her circus studies in 2011, going through several modalities such as acrobatic weaving, lyre, fixed trapeze, tolling, solo acrobatics, handstands, juggling, etc.. From 2017 she began to delve into dance and scenic improvisation. She is a member of Cia Gume, a group of scenic improvisation driven by gestural codes, directed by Daniel Carrera.
